Description :

PDF-d8c92 | "In the scheme of Oskar's long life, they'd spent such little time together. And yet he was left feeling that the time they'd spent together had been the most full, the most important, and the most impossible to replicate. Perhaps it was because the end of their time had been punctuated by Oskar's death?having Aranck was the same as having a heartbeat."* * *After one thousand years of listless e... Echoes
