Description :

PDF-2d3fd | For the first 9 months of Alissa Ashton's life, she and her sister were virtually identical, but then birth happened. Damage to her brain left her body with a life-long impairment known as hemiplegic cerebral palsy. However, the condition pales in comparison to the life-long impairment caused by two simple words her mother and sister have used to label her: "Crippled One."

Dressed as Elvira, she f... Two Simple Words
